You and Your Family Could Qualify For Food Stamps If:

- You have low income or are working for low wages.
- You have or will get a social security number.
- You will get a job if you are able to work and are not working now.
- You are elderly or disabled and have high medical bills.
- You have child or elder care costs, or pay child support.
- You have high rent, a house payment, or utility bills.
- You have a car that's not worth too much.

Citizens and many legal immigrants can qualify for food stamps. Getting food stamps won't hurt you if you want to become a citizen.
